

I am writing to urge the FCC to stop Sinclair Broadcasting from violating the public trust by using public airwaves to broadcast a blatantly partisan attack ad on Senator John Kerry.

If Sinclair goes forward with this broadcast we will have reached a new low in politics and broadcasting in America, and they and you will have committed an enormous breach of trust with the citizenry.

If the FCC can levy fines on broadcasters for indecency surely it can take action in this much more serious case.

Jennifer Taylor
San Francisco, CA